STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice require Community Supervision Agencies to utilize and adhere to all instructions set forth in the JJA Case Management Payment System Handbook.

DISCUSSION: The Case Management Payment System Handbook describes the services and establishes the outcomes, the standards, and the maximum fee the Juvenile Justice Authority will pay for specific services. Community Supervision Agencies are responsible for adhering to the procedural guidelines established in the handbook.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
